RBI Master Direction — KYC / AML (synthetic excerpt)

Chapter I. Banks shall undertake customer due diligence and ongoing monitoring proportionate to risk.

Chapter II. Politically exposed persons (PEPs) require senior-management approval and enhanced ongoing monitoring.

Chapter III. Cross-border wire transfers must include complete originator and beneficiary information. Incomplete remittance information is an elevated risk factor.

Chapter IV. Sanctions screening against applicable lists (including UN and domestic lists) must occur prior to execution where feasible, and hits must be escalated to compliance.

Chapter V. Records of alerts, dispositions, and SAR filings shall be retained and made available to competent authorities and auditors subject to applicable confidentiality rules.
